

A: Alibi – Cinema You robbed a bank yesterday but you told the police that you went to the cinema. Work with your partner to create an alibi. Here are some questions the police may ask: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Where did you meet?• When did you meet?• What were you wearing?• What did you do before the cinema?• What film did you see?• What was it about?• Can you describe the main characters?• What did you do after the cinema?	B: Alibi – Restaurant You stole a car yesterday but you told the police that you went to a restaurant. Work with your partner to create an alibi. Here are some questions the police may ask: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Where did you meet?• When did you meet?• What were you wearing?• What did you do before your meal?• What was the restaurant like?• What did you eat/drink?• Can you describe the other customers?• What did you do after your meal?	C: Alibi – Concert You stole a painting yesterday but you told the police that you went to a concert. Work with your partner to create an alibi. Here are some questions the police may ask: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Where did you meet?• When did you meet?• What were you wearing?• What did you do before the concert?• What band/musician did you see?• What happened at the concert?• Can you describe the people you saw?• What did you do after the concert?
A: Investigation – Cinema You have two or three suspects. A witness saw them at the scene of the crime but they say they went to the cinema. Ask them questions about their day together. If there are any differences in their stories, then you know they are lying. Example questions: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Where/when did you meet?• What was your friend wearing?• What did you do before/after the cinema?• What can you tell me about the film? Write notes about what other questions you should ask.	B: Investigation – Restaurant You have two or three suspects. A witness saw them at the scene of the crime but they say they went to a restaurant. Ask them questions about their day together. If there are any differences in their stories, then you know they are lying. Example questions: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Where/when did you meet?• What was your friend wearing?• What did you do before/after the meal?• What can you tell me about the restaurant? Write notes about what other questions you should ask.	C: Investigation – Concert You have two or three suspects. A witness saw them at the scene of the crime but they say they went to a concert. Ask them questions about their day together. If there are any differences in their stories, then you know they are lying. Example questions: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Where/when did you meet?• What was your friend wearing?• What did you do before/after the concert?• What can you tell me about the concert? Write notes about what other questions you should ask.

A: Alibi – Cinema You robbed a bank yesterday but you told the police that you went to the cinema. Work with your partner to create an alibi. The police are going to ask you about your day. Here are some things to think about: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• When/where you met• What you were wearing• What you did before• Details about the film plot/actors• Your opinion of the film• Descriptions of people/things you saw• What you did after	B: Alibi – Restaurant You stole a car yesterday but you told the police that you went to a restaurant. Work with your partner to create an alibi. The police are going to ask you about your day. Here are some things to think about: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• When/where you met• What you were wearing• What you did before• Details about the food/restaurant• Your opinion of the food• Descriptions of people/things you saw• What you did after	C: Alibi – Concert You stole a painting yesterday but you told the police that you went to a concert. Work with your partner to create an alibi. The police are going to ask you about your day. Here are some things to think about: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• When/where you met• What you were wearing• What you did before• Details about the concert/venue• Your opinion about the band/musicians• Descriptions of people/things you saw• What you did after
A: Investigation – Cinema You have two or three suspects. A witness saw them at the scene of the crime but they say they went to the cinema. Ask them questions about their day together. If there are any differences in their stories, then you know they are lying. You should ask them about: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Where they went, and when• Their clothes/appearance• The film they saw• Details about the trip• What they did before/after the film Write a list of ten questions with your partner.	B: Investigation – Restaurant You have two or three suspects. A witness saw them at the scene of the crime but they say they went to a restaurant. Ask them questions about their day together. If there are any differences in their stories, then you know they are lying. You should ask them about: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Where they went, and when• Their clothes/appearance• The food they ate• Details about the trip• What they did before/after the meal Write a list of ten questions with your partner.	C: Investigation – Concert You have two or three suspects. A witness saw them at the scene of the crime but they say they went to a concert. Ask them questions about their day together. If there are any differences in their stories, then you know they are lying. You should ask them about: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Where they went, and when• Their clothes/appearance• The band/musicians they saw• Details about the trip• What they did before/after the concert Write a list of ten questions with your partner.

A: Alibi – Cinema You robbed a bank yesterday but you told the police that you went to the cinema. Work with your partner to create an alibi. The police are going to ask you about your day. Here are some things to think about: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• The events of the day: what you did, when/where/why• Clothes/appearance• People/interactions• The film/cinema You need to invent a convincing alibi. Try to include lots of details.	B: Alibi – Restaurant You stole a car yesterday but you told the police that you went to a restaurant. Work with your partner to create an alibi. The police are going to ask you about your day. Here are some things to think about: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• The events of the day: what you did, when/where/why• Clothes/appearance• People/interactions• The food/restaurant You need to invent a convincing alibi. Try to include lots of details.	C: Alibi – Concert You stole a painting yesterday but you told the police that you went to a concert. Work with your partner to create an alibi. The police are going to ask you about your day. Here are some things to think about: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• The events of the day: what you did, when/where/why• Clothes/appearance• People/interactions• The concert/venue You need to invent a convincing alibi. Try to include lots of details.
A: Investigation – Cinema You have two or three suspects. A witness saw them at the scene of the crime but they say they went to the cinema. Ask them questions about their day together. If there are any differences in their stories, then you know they are lying. Ask them about: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• The events of their day: what they did, when/where/why/who• Their clothes/appearance• Any details that they should remember about the day Discuss what questions you could ask to find out if the suspects are lying.	B: Investigation – Restaurant You have two or three suspects. A witness saw them at the scene of the crime but they say they went to a restaurant. Ask them questions about their day together. If there are any differences in their stories, then you know they are lying. Ask them about: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• The events of their day: what they did, when/where/why/who• Their clothes/appearance• Any details that they should remember about the day Discuss what questions you could ask to find out if the suspects are lying.	C: Investigation – Concert You have two or three suspects. A witness saw them at the scene of the crime but they say they went to a concert. Ask them questions about their day together. If there are any differences in their stories, then you know they are lying. Ask them about: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• The events of their day: what they did, when/where/why/who• Their clothes/appearance• Any details that they should remember about the day Discuss what questions you could ask to find out if the suspects are lying.